- 25X1 1.  Aeropál, National Enterprise, at Modrany, was 25X1 recruiting employees and working at full speed. However,
 25X1  a plan was being studied for cutting out part of its production of air-
 25X1 craft instruments  and devoting part of its facilities
 25X1 to the production of radio parts and electric refrigerators. The production 25X1 series of aircraft instruments already in process would be completed under this plan, however.
2. This conversion of production would entail the discharging of 200 of the plant's 900 employees. The reason given for this conversion was the end of the war in Korea.
3. In 1951, Aeropál, at Modrany, employed only 300 persons.
